Supplementary Figure 20 : Identification of replication samples. The plot shows the 1st and 2nd genetic data principal component scores (GPCs) for the 1,279 samples that were left out of the main discovery sample set. The cluster of points around the (0,0) point corresponds to participants with predominantly European ancestry. We set a threshold at 14 for the 1st GPC to identify a set of European samples.